Chill and season with fresh lemon juice, grated ginger and fresh chopped cilantro. Set aside. Slice each baby bok choy into half lengthwise. In a sauce pan, add water, ginger, garlic, zest of the orange and the juice. Bring to a boil and add the box choy. Cover tightly and steam until tender, 2-4 minutes. Drain and reduce the liquid in the pan until syrupy and add the sesame oil. Set aside. Coat each fish fillet with oil, salt and pepper. In a non-stick pan, pan sear the fish on both sides until cooked through, about 2 -4 minutes on each side. Onto each dinner plate, scoop rice, bok choy drizzled with reserved orange sauce, fish fillet with 1 Tbsp of chili sauce and garnish with sesame seeds.

CHEF'S NOTES:

Salmon can be a nice substitute for the Arctic Char. A little bit of black rice will tint the whole rice a nice purple hue and give a subtle sweet flavor. If unavailable, it can be omitted.
